Date: 31.10.2023

Dear Parents/Guardians

The season of celebrations and festivity fills every heart with hope and profound serenity against the global upheavals and deep uncertainties. These unfold with a promise of revival of good times...this too shall pass...the prejudices will wipe out...differences evade and hearts will unite...spiralling out of all enmity and barbarism. Not much to look back, the G-20 came as a whiff of cool breeze though soon swept by the new conflict of Israel- Palestine. This too shall pass...

All times are an apt time to re-educate our hearts about compassion, faith and mercy. Let's together educate ourselves and our children about the difference between 'self' and 'selflessness' - educate about being sensitive to the creatures of the world- educate about seeing others also as a part of the world in which we exist. Talking to our children about their blessings, the abundance and the possession that they enjoy will sensitize them towards the needs of the lesser privileged beings around them.

We are hopeful that the hearts educated at home will receive the joy by contributing generously during the 'Joy of Giving' week at school. This will also ensure the children to get the certificate or letters of recommendation with this aspect of generosity highlighted when they seek higher admissions abroad. Let's teach them to achieve a genuine credibility of their generosity, by lending a helping hand to their lesser brethren - sharing and caring..

Educating the heads, hands and hearts of our children we shall give them the timeless education which shall prevail through all times of their strife - personal or professional and they shall leave the impact of this timeless education on our future India.

May the Lord empower us with strength that we impart this timeless education to the future caretakers of our country!

I deem it my responsibility to congratulate and thank you for your contribution to the Daan Utsav where we collected our old unused articles. But real generosity lies in partaking of your riches - donating the new things for the lesser brethren. Let us extend our family and friends on this approaching festival of light. Our immediate family and friends enjoy His grace but it is our extended family that looks unto us.

My dear Parents, help your children keep this spirit alive and this sensitivity breathing-thus making life a celebration for all.

Dear Children

Let's follow the thought of the Father of our Nation- 'The simplest acts of kindness are by far more powerful than a thousand heads bowing in prayer'. Dear children, show your kindness and experience the real joy - the joy of giving.
